CALL FOR NOMINATIONS FOR THE DORIS HUESTIS SPEIRS AWARD

The Speirs award is our Society's most prestigious honour, presented annually to an individual who has made outstanding lifetime contributions in Canadian ornithology. Awardees have included those who worked at museums, government agencies, private agencies, universities or as volunteers. The most recent winner was Normand David, a person whose work in regional associations and his popular books/articles contributed to the major surge of interest in ornithology among amateurs in Québec in the 1980s.

If you wish to suggest a candidate, please contact the committee chair:
